

SARA MOSES

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR

Sara Moses tells the story of her survival as one of the youngest children, without her parents, to survive a Jewish ghetto and two Nazi concentration camps, Ravensbruck and Bergen-Belsen, where Anne Frank died. The youngest Jewish children were the most targeted for extinction. They had almost no chance to survive the death camps.

You will be changed by Sara's personal account and learn what she believes can help us today, in dealing with a world still filled with double standards, violence and hatred.
